

COMMUTER REIMBURSEMENT ACCOUNTS

Eligible transportation and parking expenses include:

- Public transportation to and from work including trains, subways and buses.
- Transportation to and from work in a commuter vanpool. A vanpool is a vehicle that seats at least six (6) persons and is used at least 80% of the time for home to work commuting.
- Ferry passes used to commute to and from work.
- Parking near work or public transportation.

Ineligible transportation and parking expenses include:

- Costs not associated with the commute to work.
- Tolls and EZ Pass expenses.
- Taxi or limousine services.
- Costs from an employee bought voucher or bus pass when a voucher system is already sponsored or available by the Employer.
- Parking costs incurred at your residence.
- Parking costs incurred while traveling for business, including airport parking.

Contributions to a Qualified Transportation Reimbursement Account include:

- The IRS sets the maximum monthly contribution to a Qualified Transportation Reimbursement Account. The monthly maximums for 2014 are $130.00 for transportation and $250.00 for parking. Your contribution can be an amount at or below the maximums and can change as often as the employer's plan allows.
